RoHS COMPLIANCE STATEMENT IN RELATION TO BATTERY DIRECTIVE

Directive 2006/66 /EC

Directive 2011/65/EU

Commission Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863

The revised RoHS (Reduction of Hazardous Substances) Directive 2011/65/EU with the Commission Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863 of 31 March 2015 amendment to RoHS 2 (RoHS 3) on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment states that batteries and accumulators are out of the scope of RoHS (point 14). In relation to batteries other Directive is effective – Battery Directive. However, we ensure the compliance of RoHS Directive to components used in produced batteries:
