

Declaration of Compliance

with the Directive (EU) No 2011/65/EU (RoHS)

This letter is to confirm that the product(s) referenced below have been evaluated in accordance with the Directive 2011/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2011 on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS) with all the amendments issued by the date this declaration was made.

The product(s) mentioned below DO NOT CONTAIN any of the RoHS listed substances in concentrations above limits. The product(s) referenced below have been evaluated for the presence of restricted substances based on PSDS (Product Safety Data Sheet) or suppliers' declarations for incorporated components which confirmed that the product(s) do not exceed concentration limits given.

Product evaluation has been performed in accordance with the requirements of IEC 63000:2016+AMD1:2022.

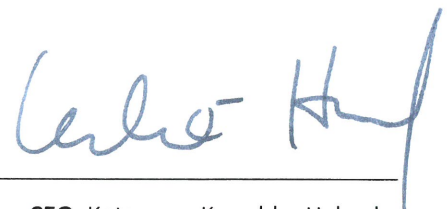

Additionally, Wamtechnik confirms that regular assessments of the supply chain and purchased components are conducted to ensure compliance with the RoHS Directive. This includes reviewing supplier declarations and keeping up to date with any changes to the Directive.
